SAMURAI TRAIN

Aizu-Nikko Tour

Experience

Japanese Samurai Culture

A visit to the region of "Aizu", where vestiges of ancient Japanese Samurai culture remains to this day, and also to the famous and beautiful world heritage site of "Nikko"

Image of Tsuruga-jo Castle

Point 1

Travelling on a chartered "Samurai Train"

The Dome-liner "Skytree Train" will be chartered for the tour! On it you will get to enjoy a special performance by the world renowned Samurai Artist Group "Kengishu Kamui". Guaranteed fun and a perfect introduction to the awesomeness of Japan's feudal warriors.

Point 2

You will feel the Samurai spirit wherever we go

Nikko Toshogu Shrine

Following major restoration work completed in March 2017, the Yomeimon and the iconic "Three Wise Monkeys" have never looked so vivid.

Uchi-juku

Uchi-juku is a little village nestled in the mountains where little has changed in 400 years. Travel back in time and feel the history.

Nisshinkan Samurai School Kyudo (archery) experience

The Nisshinkan was the academy where Aizu Domain samurai were educated during the Edo era. You can see first-hand what they studied and how they mastered the Bushido way.

Tsuruga-jo Castle

A symbol of samurai culture in Aizu, it has a history of more than 600 years. (Admission inside the castle.)
